Sir:

OFFICE OF PETITIONS

Applicant respectfully submits that Applicant was shocked to receive a notice that the above referenced patent application was improperly abandoned for allegedly failure to reply the Notice to File Missing Parts, allegedly mailed on 07/31/01.

Applicant respectfully submits that Applicant has never received the above-mentioned Notice to File Missing Parts, and is thus impossible to reply to the said Notice. In the past and in numerous instances, Applicant has always timely responded to any Notice to File Missing Parts. However, as mentioned above, since Applicant has never received the above-mentioned Notice to File Missing Parts, Applicant is in no way to respond to the Notice.

Thus, Applicant respectfully requests that the improper abandonment be removed so that the present application can proceed to further examination on the merit without incurring undue hardship due to error by the PTO.
